JACK STALCUP WILL PLAY AT U. T. J. C.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION PAPER ORGANIZED

The Baptist Student Union of the University of Tennessee has organized a paper which will be published weekly. The first issue will be published this week.

Decorations will consist of red and white paper valentines. Each student will be allowed to invite four visitors to the event. Cladets and clowns are also invited.

Besides singing and playing cards will be offered to any who desire this type of recreation. Each student will be allowed to invite four visitors to the event. Cladets and clowns are also invited.

FIRST AID CLASSES

Miss Watson has organized a Red Cross First Aid Class. There are a good many students enrolled in this class. It had its first meeting on January 10. Since that time the class has made much progress in making bandages and wrapping wounds. This is a course most of us should be interested in because there are many occasions when knowledge of first aid and treatment can save a life.

Those enrolled in the class are: Martha Harris, Jean Letch, Nancy Webb, Katy Taylor, Louise Leggett, Emma Green, Dot Cecil Stewart, L. H. Cantrell, Harriet Herrold and Elizabeth Johnson.

NEW STUDENTS ON U. T. J. C. CAMPUS

We have several new students on our campus this quarter. We are glad to welcome Ella Jane Campbell, Groverfield, Sarah Lee Foster, Bolivar, Monetta Elliott, Horne, Sharon, Virginia L. Hume, Newbern, and several others.

We also welcome back to the campus several students who have not enrolled this quarter but have been out of the country.

SPORTS

The basketball team has won several games. The football team is also doing well. The tennis team has also had some success. The swimming team is also active. The track and field team is also working hard. The cheerleaders are also very active. The student body is very active in sports.

There are many more sports events planned for the future. We hope to see many more students participating in sports. The student body is very active in sports.

Miss Logan New Clothing Teacher

Miss Logan, who has been at the school for some time, has been appointed as the new clothing teacher. She has been teaching for some time and has a good reputation. She will be teaching the clothing class.

She taught in the high school in East Tennessee. When asked how she liked it, she replied, "I have been very busy, but I am very much interested. There is a friendly atmosphere about the school. I think there is a very good group of students here. They are very cooperative."

Confession Sheet

Favorite Flower: Rose
Favorite Food: No one I like
Favorite Sport: Football
Favorite Color: Blue
Favorite Drink: Coffee
Favorite Food: No one I like
Pastime: Reading
Hobby: Collecting books

The Quality I Admire Most: Students Initiative

Miss Logan has made a list of all the students who have come in contact with her. She considers one of her greatest assets to be the fact that she is hard to please. She had no trouble pleasing anyone, and she is certainly hard on teachers and students alike.

U. T. J. C. STUDENTS IN THE ARMED FORCES

The following students are serving in the armed forces: John, Bill, and Mary. They are all doing very well. They are all very brave and are serving their country. They are all very proud of their service. They are all very happy to be serving their country.

WILL THERE BE WED BRIDES FROM U. T. J. C.

There are many students who are getting married. They are all very happy. They are all very proud of their service. They are all very happy to be serving their country.

Kroll's Latest Book To Men Overseas

Mr. Kroll's latest book, "The Men of the Sea," is a collection of stories about men who have served in the navy. It is a very interesting book and is a good read for anyone who is interested in the navy.

Miss Hawkins is the daughter of Mr. Hawkins. She is a very good student and is very loved by her family.

Ed Note: Miss Hawkins is a very good student and is very loved by her family.

HONOR ROLL

One quarter of school has gone by and when the tallying was all done we found quite a few of our U. T. J. C. students have carried out honors well worth mentioning. We had the three honor groups and their representatives to be as follows:

Summa Cum Laude
R. G. Vargate, Captain
Norma Jean Letch
John Bill Meek
Francis Nellie
Mary Kathleen Taylor

Magna Cum Laude
C. G. Vargate, Captain

FOURTH WAR LOAN

AMERICA has been at war since December 7, 1941. Two long years of fierce fighting at the battle fronts with thousands of American soldiers giving their lives for the safety and protection of their country. We at home should help by purchasing war bonds and gifts of equipment for our soldiers.

The part we can play is to loan money to the government. This is to be done by purchasing war bonds and gifts of equipment for our soldiers. The part we can play is to loan money to the government. This is to be done by purchasing war bonds and gifts of equipment for our soldiers.

Mrs. M. J. Phillips
Senior College
Martin, Tennessee
Dear Mrs. Phillips:

The campus chatter mailed to me by you was received and greatly appreciated. James received many letters from both students and teachers which meant a lot during the days of his illness. It is impossible for Marie and me to write to all who were so kind and thoughtful to write. We would like in some way to convey to them through you our heartfelt appreciation for the many remembrances and kindly thoughts expressed to him.

I am so glad he had his year at T. I. but he truly seemed to enjoy it there to the utmost and we will always be interested in the school because of what it meant to him.

Yours truly,
Mrs. J. W. Phillips

CONFETTI

Question: How many can get in the shower room?

Answer: Indefinite number.

Why have the girls taken such an interest in ping pong?

Who were the hogs (oh, excuse me, Janette and Phyllis) who came to the ball game in summer sandals and " " ? Thursday night. Of course, they didn't stay long, since they came for Milbie.

Robbie, why didn't you tell Joanna and Phyllis that that was the strangest kind of cigar before they got too sick to know what you were talking about.

Mary and Nancy tell us again about seeing Rita Hayworth and Orson Wells and get together on it this time.

Jane Campbell, please stay at home at noon! That poor little boy is going nuts trying to catch you.

Why does Mr. Butler think two girls have completely lost their sense of direction? A dark light is in the hall.

What is the trouble over No. 5? It's a long time since some friends called.

Mr. Woods, you had more to say than what you said. Your sons must be in it. We stopped watching it.

Why did you hear it was a girl who had been here last week? It was a girl who had been here last week.

That girl who was called " " was a girl.

Phyllis, what do you know about the " " ? It's a girl who was called " " .

Why did you hear it was a girl who had been here last week? It was a girl who had been here last week.

That girl who was called " " was a girl who had been here last week.

Why did you hear it was a girl who had been here last week? It was a girl who had been here last week.

That girl who was called " " was a girl who had been here last week.

That girl who was called " " was a girl who had been here last week.

Why is all the suite so sad? Is it because there will be no D and D next quarter? Uniforms seem to have an attraction for everyone these days.

Lois, you seem to be better these days. Could it be because of a preacher?

Alberta, before you start shouting, you'd better see who's outside your door.

What effect does Red Skelton have on Gladys?

Attention Reed Hall girls, just who is "Poor Lil"?

Laralee Mae, you seem to be getting a lot of attention from Milhington lately.

Dot, I hope Dick enjoys those letters you write him in class.

Gladys, what is this we hear about you playing school Saturday night?

The dining hall seems to be a place for auditions. First G. & K. with their new dance step and then Boots with her rendition of Shoo, Shoo, Baby.

Sam seems to really get around. Just ask some of the girls in Reed Hall.

Katy, did you find a helping hand in the romance between B. & E.?

Celestia, how are your love affairs now? Just who is in the running right now?

Bertina, we all think the cowboy joke is cute. Don't you agree?

ATTENTION! Geraldine Rogers was happily married Christmas eve, and she wasn't late to her wedding much.

Dorothy Nancy seems to have done all right with Blanche. No more "Dor"!

We hear we have an honest-to-god cowboy taking in Reed Hall. What about it, Edna?

Better guard your heart, Mr. Rogers. That red-head's on the loose!

Glad, but those girls in Room 14 really are studies. Ch. Anne?

Why was the new man, Chad Mungro, called "Red" Saturday night?

Why was Catherine Champion looking as she walked down the street the other night every time a certain car passed by?

Lost Martha, do Harkley's brain.

Found! Sarah Taylor thinks she has found it.

False Alarm! Just keep looking, because she's not dead.

Have you seen the Matt & Jeff combination on our campus? Meville and Moss.

Why does Garner always come to breakfast? Not because he is hungry except for a sight of "Bunny". By the way, Garner, Bunny is going to be mad if you don't lay off June.

The Martin High School boys seem to be coming into their own with some of the little goods from Reed Hall. Just ask Carol Monahan and Gladys Williams!

Hey, Connelly! Do you still have trouble keeping your feet still?

Why is it that John Thomas is so easily spotted in those scheduled places (with three girls)? Could it be his flashing red hair?

Wonder who it is that is breaking everything at the I. A. building? Connelly did you do that?

Well, well Blank, how about this Dyerburg girl you're "moon-ey" over? Better watch your step or you'll fall on the Reed Hall steps.

Reward of the week goes to Molly B. She pops up with a diamond that "daddy" gave her and then adds a new name to her mailbox.

Dot, had a birthday tears don't always mean grief though, do they?

Drawing names from a hat for dates gets you in a jam, huh Booney and Ronny? Gosh!

The bluebeard of the campus none other than Sherrill Parks. Now listen son, get busy and get rid of that brnar patch. Signed Anonymous.

Hippolyte, graham crackers and funny antics make a keen combination. When pickled relish is added and lemons become peace offerings, it only proves that anything can happen between rooms 27 and 29.

Why do we hear screams coming from Room 17 so often lately? Drucy, if it's all that bad, I think you owe your roommates an explanation.

Girls, Tennessee Barracks are once again occupied. It's nice, isn't it? But will we sigh over these as we did the one who left January 11th.

Why do Joy and June sit home and study (yeh, study) now? It couldn't be that Ashley and Griffin have gone bye-bye, could it?

Margaret, can't you find a younger man than Mr. Kroll to faint on. We'll admit that is a good way to get a man since it is leap year. Billie Cantrell skates you know.

Girls, what's wrong with us? We just can't get these boys "a-runnin'" like the last ones did.

The jokes on Mr. Allen this time, isn't it girls?

We have come to the conclusion that Laura Lou was trying to do acrobatic stunts Thursday night instead of playing ball, or maybe she has a new job of mopping the floors at the gym.

French wasn't really as scary as he sounded on the telephone was he, Mariwill? It seems as if Kathleen got the results, though.

Barbara, weren't you ashamed to monopolize O'Hara at the dance Saturday night? Marie and Jane haven't seen the poor boy since.

Why is Robbie Fuller looking so sad? Could her thoughts be in Atlanta?

Wonder why Martha Franklin is so anxious for February 27 to arrive? Could be. Red is coming home.

June, what in the world were you so happy about the other day? Say you got an awful sweet letter? Well, I just hope you don't get them too often, or your roommates will be taking a trip to Bolivia.

Nancy Wirt, don't worry too much. I really don't think Robbie can beat your time.

I wonder why Joanna went to noon-day prayer meeting. Could she have been tricked into it or is she actually turning over a new leaf?

Have you heard Drucy's and June's version of "Moonlight on the Colorado"? Mrs. Reed has.

Milbe, who is the new cadet? We thought that you were in love with Sudy.

Have you noticed Janette Cherry looking blue lately? Could it be because her Lt's boy friend left with the other cadets about two weeks ago?

We hear that the masterpiece of the Gardner House is complete; Jo's new dress.

Why did Leggins go to Nashville January 21? Could it be love??? Yep, and why did he go last week end? We know it must be love now.

What in the world has Nancy Wirt been embroidering on lately? Come on, give us the low down, Nancy.

Gardner House girls are on the lookout for men. Beware Cadets! Jane Campbell seems to be getting around all right. Eh, Sis?

Mot Harris has at last found a one and only if she can catch him!

Mary Kelly is on the look-out for a boy six feet tall.

Ann Garrigan really gets around since she has come back I hear. Mary Ethel still goes home on the week ends. I wonder why?

"Dunc" rushes to the mail box every morning. Oh, why doesn't E. W. write more often?

What does Ruby Love find so interesting in physics class?

Wasn't it fun just to even go to the barracks?

Wonder why Mary Duncan was seen chasing Ruby Love and Virginia with a shoe? It couldn't be that she has lost her temper.

Light and Shadow

The part we can play is to loan money to the government. This is to be done by purchasing war bonds and gifts of equipment for our soldiers.

The Battle Of The Sexes

She's an angel in truth, a demon in fiction,
A woman's the greatest of all contradictions—
She's afraid of a cockroach, she'll scream at a mouse,
But she'll tackle a husband as big as a house.
She'll take him for better, she'll take him for worse—
She'll split his head open and then be his nurse.
And when he is well and can get out of bed,
She'll pick up a teapot and throw at his head.
She's faith, deceitful, keen sighted, and blind,
She's crafty, she simple, she's cruel and kind.
She'll make you her hero her ruler and clown—
She's really your master though you wear the crown,
You fancy she's this but you find that she's that
For she'll play like a kitten and fight like a cat,
In the morning she will, in the evening she won't
And you're always expecting she will, but she don't.

Men are what women marry.
They have two feet, and two hands, and sometimes two wives, but they never have more than one dollar, or more than one idea at a time.

Like Turkish cigarettes, men are all made of the same material, and the only difference is that some are better disguised than others. Generally speaking, they may be divided into three classes: husbands, bachelors and widowers. An eligible bachelor is a mass of obstinacy entirely surrounded by suspicion. Husbands are divided into three varieties: prizes, surprises and consolation prizes. Making a husband out of a man is one of the highest plastic arts known to civilization. It requires science, sculpture, common sense, faith, hope and charity; especially charity.

It is a psychological marvel that a soft, fluffy, tender, violet scented thing like a woman should enjoy kissing a big awkward, stubby-chinner, tobacco and bay-rum scented thing like a man.

If you flatter a man, you frighten him to death, and if you don't, you bore him to death. If you permit him to make love to you, he gets tired of you in the end, and if you don't he gets tired of you in the beginning. If you wear gay colors, rouge, and a sparkling hat, he hesitates to take you out, and if you wear a brown toque and a tailor-made suit, he takes you out and stares all evening at a woman in gay colors, rouge, and a sparkling hat.

A man is just a worm in the dust, and he comes along, wriggles around for a while and finally some chicken gets him. All State, Clarksville, Tennessee.

'Tis funny but I have been smelling a rat in Reed Hall, or is there something cookin'. I wonder?

NU KAPPA NU MEETING

There was a meeting of the Nu Kappa Nu Club in the Reed Hall reception room at 10:15 p.m. on Wednesday, January 12.

The meeting was presided over by Rose Virginia Capps, who was very efficient in the handling of the election of the following officers for this present quarter: Ann Garrigan, vice-president, and Joan Hornbeak, reporter. The other officers continued to hold the offices they had held the fall quarter.

After the election of new officers the club discussed plans for a social. Final decisions were for a backward dance held at the physical education building Saturday night, January 29, with students, cadets and faculty members invited.

The meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the school's Alma Mater.

CONFETTI

The faculty party went over big Saturday night. The boys seemed a little shy about coming over to the dorm, so leap year furnished a good excuse for the gals to go and get 'em.

College in at lunch: Mr. Campbell: "Well, I've just discovered that Martin has suburbs—Union City and Paris."

Tommy Roe: "Is that so? Well, I've just discovered that Martin has slums too—Palmer'sville."

Sherrill see 'um pretty girl
Sherrill like 'um pretty girl.
Sherrill get date with pretty girl—Sherrill Parks.

Did you happen to see:
Billy Worthington's face glow after she got that call from Ef last Sunday?

That diamond on Patty Nix's left hand after her week-end in Memphis? Congratulations, Patty!

We've always heard that the Army and Navy aren't on exceedingly friendly terms, but it seems that Loggins is doing his bit toward reconciliation of the two. However, he's working through the feminine side of the Army.

Time: Late one Friday night last quarter.

Place: Under a spreading tree on the old campus.

Scent: Cadet and girl seated peaceably under said tree.

Act I.—Cadet in romantic mood croons: "The night is young and you're so beautiful . . ."

Act II.—Cadet, on completion of serenade looks at coed and asks, "What are you thinking about, Jean?"

Comes the reply: "That poultry test I have in the morning."

Act III.—Cadet rises and stamps ground violently.

Why does Robbie Fuler sit home every night? Johnny's payroll sure won't be very large this month.

If anybody wants to know how to boil eggs a new way, ask Nancy Webb.

Time for Spring! Time for Spring! Yes, Sis Sanders might be wearing another fraternity pin before long—Yea, Cadet Kuebel?

Why are so many girls dieting around the campus. Joy Jones and Joy Copeland, are you scared you will lose your girlish figure.

Tea Honoring Miss Nell Logan

A tea was given Saturday afternoon, January 22 in honor of Miss Nell Logan, the newest addition to the home economics faculty at the University of Tennessee Junior College. The sophomore foods class, instructed by Miss Nina Swindler, head of the foods department, sponsored the tea. Guests were the faculty ladies, faculty members' wives, and all girls on the campus, including the secretaries, librarians and office assistants as well as students. The living room and dining room at the home economics building were decorated with lovely red and white snapdragons. The refreshments carried out the red and white color scheme. Spiced tea, tiny tuna fish sandwiches cut in heart, diamond and club shapes, red and white mints, rolled sandwiches and small cup cakes were served. The guests were invited into the living room where Miss Kathryn Taylor introduced them to Miss Logan, guest of honor. Then each guest was admitted to the dining room where Miss Imogene Denning and Miss Stewart Lee poured tea. Other members of the class assisting were: Jane Campbell, Allie Howell, Mary Ann Rainey, Juanita Brewer, Nadean McDaniel, Martha Berry, Sara Overton, Alberta Maroney, Gladys Williams, Nancy Webb and Laura Dee Glover. Miss Logan was becomingly dressed in a white gown with red velvet accessories. Miss Swindler wore a striking American Beauty rose taffeta dress. The tea ended at 5 p.m. with Miss Logan having met approximately 75 ladies affiliated with the Junior College.

BACKWARD DANCE

One of the first socials of the winter quarter was the Nu Kappa Nu dance, held in the gym Saturday night. Those who did not care to dance got in some good shots on the new ping-pong tables. Several guests and alumni were present. The climax of the evening was the serving of the refreshments from a table featuring a lovely arrangement of multi-colored snapdragons and tall white candles. Mr. Cravens capped the colas, which accompanied the delicious sandwiches and cookies served from large crystal plates. The refreshment committee included Katherine Taylor, chairman; Allie Howell, Imogene Denning and Louise Liggett. Student in charge, Joan Hornbeak.

Two of the three sure signs of spring: The grandhog did not see his shadow on February 2. On February 3 I heard a dove mourning—believe it or not, and the old timers used to tell me no more frost when the dove calls. Now when I see the students strolling about hand in hand I will know for sure that winter is gone.

Wonder why Nadean got tickled in English' class? Musta been catching too.

Katy, we surely missed you when those little ol' flu germs got you in bed!

This generation isn't too hard-boiled when Rita cut a class to sleep, her conscience made her dream of bears and broken teeth.

What's this I hear 'bout a visitor's coming into these parts. Allie? "Go west, young man," she says.

Mr. McMahan was called to Knoxville concerning a state program of horticulture. Mr. Knepp and Mr. Stanford went to Knoxville in planning for post-war buildings at the Junior College.

LEAP YEAR DANCE

The first leap year dance, given by the Faculty Women's Club, was held on Saturday night, January 15, in the gymnasium.

The name of every boy on the campus was written on paper; each name was drawn by two girls. They called for their dates at the barracks at 8 p.m. and proceeded to the dance.

On arriving at the dance, the evening began with the grand march. The boys were lined up in the center of the floor and were chosen by the girls for the dances.

Games and contests were enjoyed during the evening. Refreshments of punch, sandwiches and cookies were served.

The dance ended at 11:30.

FORUM CLUB

The Forum Club met Tuesday, January 18 in the auditorium of the administration building. The purpose of the meeting was to elect the officers for this quarter. Those elected were: Joan Hornbeak, president; Harriet Herron, vice-president; Betty Scott, secretary and treasurer, and Elizabeth Johnston, reporter. Mr. Allen made some suggestions as to the kinds of programs we would have. The meeting adjourned to meet on Tuesday, February 1.

REGIONAL LIBRARY SERVICE

Recently a group of men and women took a two-day trip through nine counties, visiting the towns and schools that used books through the regional library service.

Regional library service is a co-operative plan in which two or more counties pool their efforts and resources to the end that all the people may have more adequate library facilities. There are now two regional library programs in the state.

A county library board has been appointed by the court in each of the counties participating in the service. These boards have helped to work out plans for their respective counties. They have raised "new" money for libraries and have worked toward a unification of both school and public library service.

Some of the specific services of the regional library are: Librarians and teachers can borrow books for supplementary use in unit teaching, recreational reading for children, their own personal and professional reading, for the general reading of the entire community, and for programs in schools, churches and clubs.

There are some chief advantages of the cooperative plan of service as demonstrated through the regional library. Fluid collections of books keep the smallest community supplied with fresh reading material. Books are available for use twelve months in the year. Every custodian or librarian may ask for assistance of the trained regional librarians; the entire community has access to all the library resources. By sharing books and personnel every library and school gets more return on the money invested.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The regular meeting of the Home Economics Club was held in the administration building Thursday night, January 27. A short business session was held with the president, Imogene Denning, presiding. Mrs. Meek gave an interesting talk in which she discussed what home economics had meant to her as a student, teacher and home maker. Mary Ethel Lansden sang "My Ideal," accompanied by Katy Taylor. The meeting was then adjourned.

FRESHMAN CLASS MEETING

The Freshman class met Tuesday, January 11 immediately after assembly for the purpose of deciding what type social the class would have this quarter. The social will be a formal Valentine dance, which will be held February 12 at the gymnasium. Eunice Gooch, Joan Hornbeak, Martha Ann Freeman, Bob Dumas, and Robert Hill were appointed on the committee to plan the social. Miss Watkins and Mr. Woods, the class sponsors, will assist these students.

"Sis" is on the loose again—What with Gil and Red tustling. Anyway, she's learning how to play basketball—said Red was teaching her.

Farrar To Knoxville
As Loan Professor

B. F. Farrar left this week to take up his teaching duties at the University of Tennessee at Knoxville, where he will be engaged in instructing army cadets, perhaps for the duration. Mr. Farrar is going on a temporary basis, as a loan professor, until such time as the program at the university may terminate. At this time, Mr. Meek stated officially, no one knows when. Meanwhile Mr. Farrar's teaching work has been distributed among other members in the English department, and his special activities, such as the Interscholastic Literary League, Mr. Meek said, would be worked out in due time.

WILL THERE BE WAR
BRIDES FROM U. T. J. C.

Also Patty Nix shows us by her diamond that the preacher may have some business before long. Of course we all know Bettye Wood's engagement too.

We wonder how many more war brides we'll have on our U. T. J. C. campus. Incidentally—congratulations Betty, Patty and Bettye.
—Snooper.

What young lady had three dates in two days with sailor medicine man. Maybe she's starting a practice of her own.

What particular person goes around saying, "Whatsa matter baby?" Well, it's hard to say since everyone says it.

Joan Hornbeak seemed to be "hitched." Maybe you'd better ask her about it if you don't understand this. The weather makes Joan pretty merry, too. You know, Merriwether.

Mr. Allen, we enjoyed your lecture in psychology last week. Especially that test. Ha!!
